

spotlight

new office opening

Kleinschmidt's northwest passage

Kleinschmidt is pleased to announce the opening of its Pacific Northwest office in beautiful Estacada, Oregon! Beginning September 1, 2009, Kleinschmidt will be operating a new office at: 366 South Broadway Suite 200 Estacada, OR 97023.

Located just 30 minutes from downtown Portland at the base of the Clackamas River Gorge and the Mt. Hood National Forest, Estacada is the gateway to the Clackamas River Recreation Area, offering fishing, hiking, picnicking, camping, boating and snow sports. The responsive service to our Pacific Northwest customers.

Allison Murray will be leading Kleinschmidt's efforts in our new office. With Kleinschmidt for 9 years, she has over 12 years experience in resource management, planning, and permitting. As a Senior Licensing Coordinator, Ms. Murray specializes in FERC licensing and compliance (see associated article pg 5). Allison is also skilled in stakeholder negotiations and public outreach.

Kleinschmidt stands ready to serve our existing clients' needs in licensing, compliance, shoreline management, fish passage, and engineering and looks forward to broadening our client base in the Northwest. We also look forward to developing and strengthening relationships with our industry peers in the region.

Exterior of the new office in Estacada, Oregon

Budget Travel Magazine (Sept 2007) coined Estacada as "One of the Best Places You've Never Heard Of" (www.cityofestacada.org).

region includes some of the most highly productive hydroelectric generation in the country. With our new office in Estacada, Kleinschmidt will be able to provide more efficient and

"My work with a number of great clients in the region as well as my professional affiliations with the Northwest Hydroelectric Association and personal relationships with peers and clients alike have given me a true appreciation for the energy, opportunity, and culture of the Pacific Northwest. I am extremely excited with what our move to the region means for Kleinschmidt and for me and my family."

Allison Murray
Kleinschmidt's Senior Licensing Coordinator